Closing Remarks
In the Bible, we come to understand God’s big story of the whole world. It’s a story of love and care for creation in all of its dimensions—a desire to take that which is disordered, fragmented, broken, and chaotic and replace it with peace, fullness, order, and flourishing—what the Bible calls Shalom. The Lord does that work Himself, and in His wisdom, He invites human partners into that process—fellow bringers of Shalom that testifies to God’s glory for all the world to see.

We see that work beginning with Adam and Eve at the dawn of creation and continuing with Abraham, Isaac, Jacob, and the nation of Israel. We see it in the person of Christ and the early church. And today, millennia later, we are still a part of this magnificent story.

But rooting out the Chaos in the world and supplanting it with fertile ground that will yield Shalom instead isn’t easy work. Much in the same way, farmers and gardeners don’t magically harvest bumper crops without preparing the soil, digging out the rocks and thorns, planting and nourishing the seeds, and uprooting the weeds. We call that process, cultivating.

In that sense, to be a servant of God is to be a farmer, cultivating Shalom out of the Chaos we encounter in the world around us. That’s the coming of God’s Kingdom that we pray for . . . and it’s our life’s work, no matter what our occupation.

In a very real sense, Christian education is part of that cultivating process—the planting and nurturing of seeds in our children that will bear much fruit as they enter the world to love and serve the Lord. Tonight, you are helping us in that work. You are blessing us with your gifts, your support, and your prayers.

In a tangible way, you are farmers with us. Thank you for your partnership in the ongoing work of Cultivating Shalom at Holland Christian Schools.

In Christ,

Dan Meester | Superintendent | Holland Christian Schools
Dear Friends of Holland Christian,

Thank you for registering for the 2017 Tuition Grant Fund Auction. We are truly thankful for your faithful and generous support. The proceeds from the auction are an essential part of the $1,000,000 Holland Christian has budgeted for distribution to our families for this school year.

We are thrilled you are planning to attend the auction. The committee has been making plans for this evening since the beginning of the year. It has taken effort and support from so many different people and donors to put together what we anticipate will be a fun evening for everyone. And now we have the items ready to present to you! Read it over and make a plan for which items you would like to bid on. You are an integral part of making the auction successful!

We are humbled and thankful for your generous support, and for the support of those who have donated items. Generosity like this allows us to fulfill our mission of equipping minds and nurturing hearts to transform the world for Jesus Christ.

We are grateful for the community that is Holland Christian. Thank you - we are blessed by your prayers, your time, your commitment and support. We look forward to seeing you October 14.

Buy a Line Auction Rules
Your bid number is registered in your name and is your number for the evening’s bidding in both the live and buy-a-line auctions.

All items in the Buy A Line Auction have bid sheets attached or near them. To have the opportunity to win an item, write your name and bid number on the line or lines you choose on the bid sheet. Each signature represents an obligation to pay the amount stated on the bid sheet whether you win or lose. Winners are determined by random drawings.

Payments must be made in full the evening of the Auction. Cash, check, Visa and MasterCard will be accepted as payment. There will be no exchanges or refunds on any item. All sales are final.

It is the responsibility of each successful bidder to remove each item from the Auction facility the night of the Auction.

The Donor estimates the item’s value. Each successful bidder should consult his/her own tax advisor for advice as to tax consequences resulting from or related to the bid or purchase.

Failure for whatever reason to arrange for the trip, meal, party, etc. within the time limit and according to the specified conditions releases the donor and/or HCS from all obligations. Please honor all stated expiration dates.

Heads or Tails Game Rules
Everyone will be charged $5.00 to play the game. The auctioneer will ask everyone to stand up.

Guests will be asked to predict the result of the auctioneer’s coin toss, and to indicate his or her choice of head or tail by placing their hand on their own “head” or “tail.”

Once the auctioneer tosses the coin and reveals the result, all those having chosen incorrectly are eliminated and must sit down.

Participants remaining will be asked to predict the outcome of the next coin toss and indicate their new choice. Play continues as such until only one participant remains standing and is the winner.

The winner goes home with a crisp $100 bill!
Live Auction Rules

All guests will be registered before the Auction through their ticket information. Each guest will receive a bidder number. All guests, by participation in the bidding process, agree to abide by the terms and conditions of the Auction, both printed in the program and announced the evening of the event.

Your bid number is registered in your name and is your number for the evening’s bidding in both the live and buy-a-line auctions. In the event of a dispute, the Auctioneer reserves the right to reject any or all bids. He may use his sole discretion to place any item back up for bid and may resell the item to the highest bidder. The Auctioneer’s decision is final.

Individuals who attend and choose to participate in the Auction assume all risk of damage or loss to person and property, and specifically release the Auctioneer and agents of HCS from all liability.

Payments must be made in full the evening of the Auction. Cash, check, Visa and MasterCard will be accepted as payment. There will be no exchanges or refunds on any item. All sales are final.

It is the responsibility of each successful bidder to remove each item from the Auction facility the night of the Auction.

The Donor estimates the item’s value. Each successful bidder should consult his/her own tax advisor for advice as to tax consequences resulting from or related to the bid or purchase.

Failure for whatever reason to arrange for the trip, meal, party, etc. within the time limit and according to the specified conditions releases the donor and/or HCS from all obligations. Please honor all stated expiration dates.

World of Wine

NEW for 2017!

For a $25 bid, guests have the opportunity to choose a carefully wrapped bottle of wine from approximately 100 bottles on our special World of Wines table. Most of the wines will be close in value to the bid price, but several bottles will be worth two, three or possibly five times the bid price! Bags are marked with maroon or white ribbon to signify the type of wine. Everyone keeps the wine they’ve chosen!

Gift Card Wall

Each $40 donation affords you the choice of any one of the gift cards located on our gift card wall.

Check in with the committee member at the wall, sign your name and bidder number on the line associated with the number of gift card you wish to pick. You can then pick that gift card off the wall.

All gift cards are worth at least $20, range in value from $20 to $100 and can be used at various restaurants and stores in Holland.
